UPB – 1818-2022 – a rich history

- 24 March 1818: The first higher technical school is established.
- 1862: Alexandru Ioan Cuza had established, by a Royal Decree, a set of rules for the organisation of „School of Bridges, Roads and Mines”, the hierarchy of engineers or conductors.
- 1920: the government approved the establishment of the „Polytechnic School of Bucharest”. In this initial stage it consisted in four sections: Civil Engineering; Mechanics and Electricity; Mines and Metallurgy; The Industrial Section.
- 1948: the change of name into the „Polytechnical Institute of Bucharest”.
- 1992: the change of name into the „University POLITEHNICA of Bucharest”.

With 200 years of existence, University POLITEHNICA of Bucharest represents one of the fundamental and prestigious institutions of Romanian higher education, being the main source for the technical specialists of Romania, as well for important scientific knowledge.
